

THE Carnegie Center of Columbia Tusculum

Art Classes (Adult) - Step into art with Abrakadoodle and learn that you can create amazing artwork! These step by step projects will build confidence and offer the opportunity to create beautiful art beginning-to-end to take home or share with loved ones. Create colorful landscapes, delicate floral compositions, acrylic and watercolor paintings to hang on your walls, and home décor to brighten any room! Materials included. $49 per session. Contact canderson@abrakadoodle.com for details.
Wednesdays 11-noon.

Wine Tasting Classes with Sommelier, Michael Schwartzman

Bi-Weekly-Sign up for One or the Entire Series! Do you wish to know about tasting and evaluating wine? Would you like to learn the appropriate terminology, techniques and skills for wine tasting? This class is for YOU! Michael Schwartzman is the founder of Daring Pairings that develops classes, paired experiences, and events to further the knowledge, understandings, perspectives, and experience of interested people to Enrich, Inspire, and Delight!

He is a Level 1 Somm, among other trainings, and Wine Steward at Jungle Jim's Eastgate.

Costs will be $45/person ($80 per couple) for the 2 hour class and include tastes of wine, lite bites, notes from class and assorted additional take-with materials (under sold classes - less than 8 - may be rescheduled). Bi-monthly, Monday Evenings.

Email michael@mschwartzman.com for more information.

Coming up in February:

Beer Tasting Dinner: February 12/19, 7pm; $40pp or $75 per couple registration:
<https://thecarnegiecenterofcolumbiatus.regfox.com/beer-tasting-thinking-of-brew-in-2022>

Performances: Playhouse in the Park (Tortoise and the Hare, 2/13/22, 1pm) registration:

<https://thecarnegiecenterofcolumbiatus.regfox.com/playhouse-in-the-park-tortoise-and-hare>